Foster Agreement

This agreement reflects the commitment between SNARR Rescue and a foster home for a dog or puppy. By answering the questions below you are agreeing to all the terms and conditions of the S.N.A.R.R. Northeast Foster Agreement below.

I/We (household residents) agree to foster:

Please enter pet's name

We agree to provide a safe home for our foster pet and treat him/her as a family member.

Please enter pet's name

We agree to working with SNARR Rescue to get the dog to adoption events and potential adoption meet and greets if and when they arise.

We agree to keep a collar on the dog at all times. We will leave the tag on the dog's collar that identifies the animal as belonging to SNARR Rescue.

- We agree
- We do not agree

We understand that SNARR Rescue will completely inform us of the known health history and disposition of the dog we are fostering. Even so, there are many unknowns with a rescued animal and we will be alert to health and behavioral issues that may develop while the canine is in our care. Should anything develop, we will notify the rescue immediately. We will consider ourselves the

We will notify SNARR prior to taking the dog for any vet care if at all possible. SNARR Rescue has specific clinics and veterinarians we work with and SNARR will work with us to make sure the dog is taken to the appropriate place. If we plan to pay for the care ourselves, we can take the dog to our preferred veterinarian. If, however, we are unable to reach SNARR and need to have the dog seen by a veterinarian, and expect SNARR Rescue to pay for the visit, we will take the dog to one of the clinics used by SNARR Rescue. This list will be provided to us when we begin fostering.

SNARR is a shelter and therefore we are able to dispense medication to our foster animals for basic things such as kennel cough, intestinal parasites, ear mites, diarrhea, pain etc. As a foster, you agree to contact SNARR for assistance with medication needs and to discuss your foster dog's symptoms with a SNARR representative. SNARR will not reimburse fosters for vet visits or purchase of supplies, medications etc. that were not approved prior by a SNARR representative.

- We agree
- We do not agree

We will ask the clinic for a copy of the documentation describing services rendered and costs. We will keep that documentation with the dog's records to be turned over to Courtney Bellew / SNARR and the adoptive family.

7. SNARR makes no guarantees or statements regarding the dog's age, breed, health, or temperament. While SNARR made every effort to provide accurate history and assessment of the dog, we are not able to guarantee the dog's age, breed, medical status, behavior or disposition. No one can predict how any dog will react in a given situation, especially without complete knowledge of its background, as in the case with a rescued dog. The adopter(s) acknowledge this. Therefore, the foster(s) are encouraged to exercise caution in introducing a foster dog to new situations, family members, other pets, and visitors. The enthusiastic reactions of some children to dogs can often frighten the dog. It is strongly recommended that a responsible adult monitor the interaction between dogs and children at all times.
